ABOUT ME

I am a Front-End oriented Web Developer graduated from Bootcamp Soy Henry and currently self-taught. I have worked on projects using technologies such as JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Redux, Firebase, PostgreSQL, MongoDB, Express.js, among others. In addition to knowledge in version control GIT and agile development Scrum. I have acquired my expertise in the React library, which I have used in all my projects and internships. I am motivated to learn efficiently and confidently in order to complete challenging tasks. I am willing to work remotely.
